

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

A Year of Transition and Expansion

message from the chair

Ramin Parsey, MD, PhD, Professor and Chair

This year has been a year of transition and expansion. We have recruited and appointed new leaders in each of our clinical services, diversified and expanded our clinical offerings and implemented new measures to assure quality and efficiency. We are especially proud of our sustained efforts to reduce the use of restraints in our Comprehensive Psychiatric Emergency Program.

The breadth and depth of scholarship within the department are demonstrated by the abundance of research grants and publications. Members of our faculty are principal investigators on 45 research grants. Eighty-eight articles by our faculty were published in leading professional journals.

The department received high scores in the medical students' assessment of their educational experience and outpaced all other clinical disciplines in medical students' scores on the National Board of Medical Examiners subject examinations. Six residents in Psychiatry and one fellow in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry graduated in June and seven new residents joined the program in July. Constantine Ioannou, MD was appointed training director and Jenna Taglienti, MD was named associate training director.

Four members of our faculty moved on to positions of prominence elsewhere, while we recruited 18 new members to our faculty and staff. Drs. Roman Kotov and Adam Gonzalez were promoted in rank and Drs. Carlson and Fink received prestigious awards from professional societies.

We continue to develop our imaging capabilities and look forward to putting them to work in understanding the biology of psychiatric and other disorders. We anticipate that the department will continue our trajectory of progress and accomplishment during the coming academic year.

Stony Brook Medicine

highlights

Al Alam, MD

CPEP

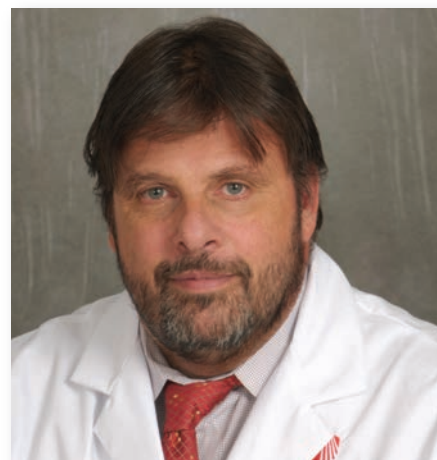

- Sustained reduction in use of restraints
- Star Quality Unit of the Year award
- Seven new attending physicians
- Creation of Child and Adolescent teams

Brian Bronson, MD

Consultation and Liaison Psychiatry

- ACGME accreditation for new Fellowship in Psychosomatic Medicine
- Ambulatory integrated care for OB/GYN
- Improved availability, timeliness and utilization of inpatient services

Constantine Ioannou, MD

Adult Inpatient Unit

- Constantine Ioannou, MD appointed Director
- Increased access to care/increased occupancy
- Recertification for three years by the Office of Mental Health

Marsha Karant, MD

Adult Outpatient Services

- Implemented electronic medical record
- Increased access to care
- Six new therapists in multiple specialties

Peng Pang, MD

Child Inpatient Unit

- Increased access and bed occupancy rate
- Admissions on all days of the week
- Initiated Bridger Project to help reduce readmissions

Deborah Weisbrot, MD

Child and Adolescent Outpatient Services

- Increased access to care
- Implemented electronic medical record
- Five fellows in training

Adeeb Yacoub, MD

Educational Program

- Sustained high scores in Medical Students' assessment of educational experience
- Superior scores in Psychiatry on the National Board of Medical Examiners exam
- Six residents graduated
- Seven new residents entered program

Christine DeLorenzo, MD

CUBIT

- Four large federally funded imaging studies underway
- Women in Science Presidential Mini-grant to recruit women in biomedical engineering
- Five new members of research faculty

Evelyn Bromet, PhD

Psychiatric Epidemiology and Behavioral Medicine

- Eight currently funded studies in progress
- Twenty year follow-up of Suffolk County Mental Health Project

honors

Gabrielle Carlson, MD was elected to the Governing Council of the American Association of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry.

Max Fink, MD received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the International Society for ECT and Neurostimulation.

Adam Gonzalez, PhD received a Faculty Diversity Program Grant from the SUNY Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

Stony Brook University/SUNY is an affirmative action, equal opportunity educator and employer. This publication can be made available in alternate format upon request.

farewell

Four long-tenured and highly-regarded members of the department's faculty left during the year to take leadership positions in other organizations. In January Distinguished Professor Arthur Stone, PhD and Associate Professor Joan Broderick, PhD left Stony Brook to join the Center for Economic and Social Research at the University of Southern California. Dr. Stone was the Director of the Applied Behavioral Medicine Research Institute and Dr. Broderick was Program Director. Dr. Stone served as Vice-Chair of the department for 15 years.

In July Professor Andrew Francis, MD, PhD retired after almost 40 years at Stony Brook to take a position as Professor of Psychiatry at Penn State Hershey College of Medicine, where he will be Director of ECT and Associate Director of Residency Training. Dr. Francis joined the faculty of the department in July 1988 and spent the next 26 years as a clinical educator in the department's inpatient service.

In August Michael Schwartz, MD left the department to become the director of psychiatric services at Huntington Hospital. For the past 17 years Dr. Schwartz has been the department's Director of Residency Training. He took up his new responsibilities in mid-August. The residents named him Teacher of the Year three times during his tenure.
