

Application Checklist

- Pay $25 Stony Brook University Dietetic Internship Application Fee. Only one fee is required from applicant, regardless if applying to both on-site and distance programs. Link for fee is accessible via program website.
 - Apply to Stony Brook University on DICAS, <http://portal.dicas.org>. Indicate on application if you are applying to the onsite, distance or both programs. DICAS charges a fee, separate from that charged by Stony Brook University. Ensure the application is completed in its entirety.
 - For Distance DI applicants only:
Submit as a supplemental form on your DICAS application the following:
 - Dietetic Internship Rotation Schedule: this should be completed with projected schedule for the year. Upon match, schedule will be finalized with Program Coordinator. Clinical Affiliation Agreement must be executed for first rotation site to be formally accepted into the program.
 - Preceptor Qualification Form: must be completed for each preceptor.
- Dietetic Internship Rotation Schedule and Preceptor Qualification Forms must be submitted as one PDF as a supplemental form to your DICAS application. Both forms are available on the Forms page of the program website.
- Register on D&D Digital for computer matching. Follow directions from D&D regarding ranking the DI programs to which you are applying. Access D&D via www.dniddigital.com. There is a separate fee assessed by D&D Digital.
 - Relax and breathe! Good luck to you!
