

Class of 2025

Thomas Li D.O. thomas.li.9207@gmail.com
Hometown/State:	Brooklyn, NY
Undergraduate:	New York University
Medical School:	NYIT College of Osteopathic Medicine
Internship:	Stony Brook Southampton Hospital
Hobbies:	Eating, Gym, Basketball, Golf, Traveling
Why Stony Brook?	As a rotating student, Stony Brook gave me the feeling of camaraderie and family, and all the attendings and staff were extremely approachable. Stony Brook also offers diverse inpatient and outpatient opportunities and excellent involvement in research, and most importantly, free food.

Etienne Rossert, M.D. etienne.rossert@gmail.com
Hometown/State:	Paris, France
Undergraduate:	Cornell University
Medical School:	Renaissance School of Medicine at Stony Brook University
Internship:	Nassau University Medical Center
Hobbies:	Watching and playing sports, playing music, and car detailing
Why Stony Brook?	I had a great experience at Stony Brook as a medical student and wanted to continue the adventure with the institution. In addition, I found the program to be very supportive, have a great sense of camaraderie, and offer the opportunity to see a variety of cases.

Karolina Zektser D.O. kzektser01@gmail.com
Hometown/State:	Staten Island, NY
Undergraduate:	NY Institute of Technology
Medical School:	NYIT College of Osteopathic Medicine
Internship:	Peconic Bay Medical Center- Northwell
Hobbies:	photography, trying new foods, traveling, staying active
Why Stony Brook?	I chose Stony Brook for its welcoming environment, family-like atmosphere, exceptional training, dedication to its residents, and its outstanding preparation for fellowships.