Responsible Department/Division/Committee:

Graduate Medical Education

Policy:

Stony Brook Medicine adheres to the policy of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education which prohibits the inclusion of any restrictive covenants or non-compete clauses for residents or fellows.

Definitions:

None

Procedures:

No Graduate Medical Education program will ask for a resident or fellow to agree to a non-compete or restrictive covenant clause as a contingency of graduate medical education training.

Residents and fellows are advised they may not sign a non-compete or restrictive covenant clause as part of any Stony Brook Medicine documents or as a contingency for employment as a resident or fellow at a Stony Brook Medicine-sponsored program. Residents and fellows must immediately advise the Graduate Medical Education office if they are asked to sign such a document.
