21st Annual

Women in Medicine & Science Research Day

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Celebrating Women in Research Across Stony Brook

Join us for the 21st Annual Women in Medicine & Science Research Day, a celebration of the groundbreaking research, scientific discoveries, and scholarly achievements of women across the Stony Brook community.

We invite faculty, staff, postdoctoral fellows, residents, medical students, graduate students, and undergraduate students throughout the Stony Brook system to submit abstracts showcasing their work. Original research, case reports, and case series are welcome.

For abstract submission instructions, scan the QR code or visit renaissance.stonybrookmedicine.edu/WIMS

Abstract submission deadline: FEBRUARY 15, 2027

Conference date: Friday, March 12, 2027

Organizer: The Office of Faculty Affairs at the Renaissance School of Medicine and the Group for Women in Medicine & Science
